PARLITALIA offers Italian language courses in a charming, friendly school near Florence, in the heart of Tuscany. Our Italian courses combine effective and professional language teaching with a broader cultural experience to give you an insight into the Italian way of life ... language learning has never been so enjoyable!

Our students learn Italian in the school's relaxed atmosphere, in small group courses of no more than 8 students. However, learning is not restricted to the classroom. Our Cultural Programme offers an interesting range of activities to suit all tastes and interests: art, nature, culture, wine tasting. In this way you can practice your Italian and get a feel for real Italian life, making your stay in Tuscany truly unforgettable.

Our teachers are selected not only for their qualifications and experience, but also for their caring and friendly approach to teaching. The school is committed to helping every student with their specific learning requirements and we will do our best to help you succeed.

Our school is located within the medieval walls of Figline Valdarno, a small characteristic town in the beautiful Tuscan countryside. It is only 20 km south-east of Florence, a stone's throw from Chianti and the Pratomagno natural reserve. The town is steeped in history, but is well away from the beaten tourist track. We provide various accommodation choices in and around Figline, from characteristic farmhouses to welcoming host families.
